Also released as: 7 "EP (1954), 12" LP (1955) with additional session tracks added. Mambo's excitement emerges from the incredibly infectious character of his rhythm - a rhythm so full of charm that he has also been known to attract large groups of people from their daily responsibilities. And if the mambo beat alone is a danger to exotic community, there is no guarantee that its effect will be when it was heard here by YMA SUMAC! "Trace the A3 title listed as "Gopher" on the back of the sleeve" Gopher (Mambo) " Record label, Capitol Records 'Blue Label', printed in the United States The following text appears on the back of the sleeve: "The mambo - full of color is exotic is - becomes infinitely more colorful and exotic when performed by the voice of YMA SUMAC. In this Mambo album the agitating voice of YMA SUMAC creates melodic patterns as colorful and varied as the selections she sings - selections written for her by the talented South American composer Moises Vivaranco, and Billy May, who organized and conducted the brilliant orchestral environments. YMA SUMAC's fifth album "MAMBO!" 1st US Pressing: 1954 Monofonic 10 "LP / EP Capitol Records L / H-564. This album is an abbreviated version of an album previously released under the same title.
